CONSENT ORDER

WHEREAS, on September 28, 2015 the Central Falls City Council sitting as the Board of License Commissioners heard evidence of American Colombian Liquor making illegal liquor sales to a minor on or about August 24, 2015, in addition to prior violations in the past year including the arrest of two clerks on May 6, 2015 for three tobacco sales violations, the finding of after hours sales on April 27, 2015; the finding of sales of alcohol on a holiday on November 27, 2014; and

WHEREAS, on September 28, 2015 the Central Falls City Council sitting as the Board of License Commissioners thereby approved a one day suspension of the Class A Liquor License of American Colombian Liquor to be observed on Friday, October 2, 2015; and

WHEREAS, on October 1, 2015, American Colombian Liquor appealed this sanction to the Rhode Island Department of Business Regulation (DBR) and sought a stay of the sanction and a full hearing; and

WHEREAS, on October 2, 2015, DBR granted the stay and the parties discussed a full evidentiary hearing and possible alternatives.

FOR THE FOREGOING REASONS, IT IS NOW HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. American Colombian Liquor will immediately withdraw their appeal at DBR;
2. The City of Central Falls agrees to move the one day suspension from October 2, 2015 to October 16, 2015.
